A Lively Fight.

This morning between 2 and 3 o'clock there was a lively fight on Pennsylvania avenue between 13th and 14th streets, in which a colored man and woman were participants. The man was getting the worst of the fight when the officers arrived, for the woman, who was intoxicated, was breaking an umbrella over his head. Policemen Helm and Moore arrested the bel-legerents and it was all they could do to get the woman to the station. She gave her name as Fannie Shaw and the man was Charles Green. The former was locked up, but the latter was released on 85 collateral, which was forfeited Police Court this morning. The woman was tried and fined $5.

TO PURIFY YOUR BLOOD

"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." R. C. BEGOLE, editor "Enterprise," Belleville, Mich. BUN DOWN.

"In the spring my whole system was completely run down. Two menths ago I began the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after using two bottles I find my ap-petite restored, my nervous system toned up, and my general health greatly improved." GEORGE BRATT. alitpolis, Ohio. N. B.—Be sure to get

POSNERS OF BALTIMORE.

We are running excursions every day this week over both the B. and P. and the B. and O. ratiroads. You can come by one road or the other every hour of the day. See the time tables. You will purchase a round-trip ticket for $2, and if you buy goods of us to the amount of $5, or over, we will give you a refund of eighty (80) cents, which will bring your fare to our established rate of $1.20.

You saw the constellation of values we published in last Saturday and Sunday's papers. Some things needed in your family were there. We shall be very pleased to see you personally, if you come over, but if it is inconvenient to do so, your orders by mail will command our prompt and definite attention. Personal or mail purchases will be delivered at your residence free of charge.

Our display of real imported French and the choicest of American Millinery is being continued this week, with plane recitals daily in our pariors from 9:30 till 6 c'clock.
